

East Gwillimbury And Newmarket Lag In Victory Campaign

Newmarket had subscribed $240,300 to the sixth Victory loan, according to Wednesday tabulations at Victory loan headquarters. The objective is $335,000.

Northern municipalities' totals and objectives were: Sutton, $77,400, $90,000; Georgina, $36,400, $65,000; North Gwillimbury, $46,550, $63,000; East Gwillimbury, $88,700, $160,000.

The North York total was $1,592,250 against an objective of $2,310,000.

NEWMARKET HAS 64 MEN IN SEA SERVICES

Sixty-four Newmarket men are serving with the navy and merchant marine, it was stated at a recent meeting of the Newmarket branch of the Navy League.

A Navy League tag day will be held on Saturday, May 27. Mrs. M. B. Seldon is convener.

"Since the first day of war, the Navy League, which incidentally was able to supply several thousand partially-trained men for the navy, army and air force immediately through its sea cadet movement, maintained in peace as well as war, has been serving the men of the Royal Canadian navy, the Canadian merchant service and the Royal navy through its comforts stations or hostels at all Canadian ports," Morden Carter stated this week on behalf of the Newmarket branch of the Navy League.

"There are homes away from home where men find recreational facilities, garments to offset exposure, ditty bags, playing cards, music, a friendly atmosphere, a meeting place to meet one's friends.

"The personnel of our naval services, according to the recent announcement of the minister of naval affairs, has grown to ten times its original size since the beginning of the war. Last year the Ontario division of the Navy League sent $175,000 worth of knitted goods and ditty bags to our naval men. This year the demand is so heavy that goods and comforts are being sent to them in thrice the volume of last year's supplies. Naval hostels everywhere are asking for more of everything.

"Our taggers are asking for money to enable the Navy League to carry on its glorious work and linking our town up even more definitely with the empire's war effort."

RAINY DAY TAG FOR BLIND IS NEAR $600

In spite of continuous rain on Saturday, the tag day for the blind was a great success.

"The special contributions and tag proceeds at present amount to around $580, and we are hoping to reach $600 by the time all donations have been received," reported the convener, Mrs. J. E. Morris. "On behalf of the Canadian National Institute, for the Blind I would like to thank the citizens of Newmarket for their whole-hearted response to this noble cause, the girl taggers who worked in a steady rain and the ladies who did the canvassing.

"This splendid result could only have been achieved by everyone doing his or her part, and your money will bring happiness to those who live in darkness."

He enlisted in 1941 and graduated as an air gunner and wireless operator in October, 1942. SEVEN WIN BONDS AT LIONS' VICTORY REVUE

The sixth Victory loan was the promotion theme of an enjoyable evening's entertainment at B.T.C. 23 drill hall on Thursday evening.

Winners of seven $50 Victory bonds were Joyce Vandenberg, 23 Niagara St., E. Adams, 32 Striley St., Aubrey Lyons, 93 Main St., Mrs. J. R. King, 41 Second St., Mrs. M. Hugheson, 10 Millard Ave., Doris Wesley, 15 Ontario St., Mrs. E. A. Collings, Bradford.

Lions President Fred Thompson announced that the bonds could be obtained from H. E. Lambert, manager of the Bank of Toronto.

A presentation of the Victory Revue was sponsored by the Newmarket Lions club. Stan Francis, master of ceremonies kept the crowd in a happy mood. Peggy and Lawrence Lester were a versatile dance team, providing everything from tap to impressionistic dancing, their offering of the Victory polka being enthusiastically received.

Ted Rust and Pat were, needless to say, a "hit" of the evening and the crowd would have liked more. Lovely Pat Bailey of the charming personality sang a number of songs that were well received. Everybody liked Tom Hamilton, Scotch comedian, with his quaint Scotch songs and jokes.

Lola Spence, lovely young dancer, showed the audience what one could do with a pair of nimble feet. Marjorie Dames was accompanist. A full orchestra was also in attendance.

Capt. Aubrey Davis, on behalf of the Victory loan, said that he was "sure North York and Newmarket would go over the top." He also told of being out to Sir William Mulock's that afternoon and receiving a cheque for $150,000 as Sir William's share in helping North York raise its quota.

Capt. A. W. Downer, M.P.P., a former padre at Newmarket camp, recently returned from overseas, told the audience that had they seen some of the things he has seen in Italy, and while on convoy, there would be no doubt in their minds as to whether they should purchase Victory bonds or not. He told of seeing little Italian children, crippled, and old people.

"How can we say we can't afford to buy a bond? The boys are giving their all. The least we can do is to buy bonds."

Bad Weather Doesn't Deter Salvage Workers

The salvage collection on Saturday was carried out in spite of a cold rain which continued all afternoon. Twelve men stuck to the job and collected ten tons of paper and rags.

Trucks were loaned for the collection by the town of Newmarket and Rusto's.

So long as paper remains on the list of critical materials needed for war purposes these collections will be carried out periodically. Next collection will be held during the latter part of June and it is hoped that in the meantime householders will save all their waste paper for the next collection.

Several times in the past Scouts have taken over the Veterans' cigarettes for troops overseas mailing list. Proceeds from the sale of these salvage materials will be used for this purpose, as soon as sufficient funds have been accumulated.

SCHOOL MAKES GIFTS

Eversley school Junior Red Cross members have been kept busy. The group has made gifts to the King township Red Cross, the Milk for Britain fund, Eaton Hall Farm Red Cross, the Malta tag day fund and to Chinese relief. Nine district men overseas received Christmas gifts from Eversley school.

MUST LEARN TO SPEND, IS M.P.P. ADVICE

"I have only one faith left, that is, in the good sense of the common man and woman—and just as much faith in the good sense of the common woman as in the good sense of the common man," Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P.P. for East York, told a C.C.F. rally in Newmarket town hall on Friday evening. About 150 persons were present.

Miss Macphail advised people to organize in their professional group. "If you are a farmer, then you can join your Federation of Agriculture," she said.

"I don't suppose anybody who ever worked in a factory in this town ever got rich, ever became wealthy," she said. "But why shouldn't he, as well as others who get more for less work? Then it is a Christian duty, a patriotic duty to organize a trade union and join it. That's only common sense.

"That is not going to turn the world upside down, but it will give two great groups (farm and labor) a chance to organize their work."

"Another thing that will be emphasized more and more is the building of co-operatives," said Miss Macphail, stating that the United Farmers' Co-operative was likely to have a turn-over of $20,000,000 this year. "The British and Scottish Co-operatives are the biggest single business in the world today."

Miss Macphail offered a fourfold program, organization of the people, education by means of discussion (for instance, radio forums), co-operation "as a means of carrying on our life," and radical political action.

"I am in the C.C.F. because it is a radical political party that is out to serve the common people," she declared Miss Macphail. "The old parties cannot serve the common people because, the Bible tells us, we cannot serve two masters."

"We won't take your farm. We don't want your farm. I know too much about farm economics. We won't take your securities. We won't take anything else you have lying around."

Miss Macphail advocated "farm loans at two percent, even though it costs the country one-half percent more."

"We have to learn to spend money, because we are going to live from now on in an age of abundance," said Miss Macphail.

"The federal government must be free to carry out vast governmental schemes and to finance them. And to do so the federal government must take back the sovereign power to issue money."

Miss Macphail said that the volume of money needed depended on the volume of production. The Bank of Canada was taking over from the chartered banks the right to issue currency "but the large volume of money is the loans pyramid on it."

Miss Macphail suggested a soil conservation program, "a home fit to live in" for every family, a bathroom and electric lights in every farm home, an electric milkster "in every stable that has a reasonable number of cows," health centres to give nursing, medical and surgical services, a recreational centre in every town (with auditorium, library, committee rooms.

"Why not? We are going to live in the sort of world where we are not going to spend all our time making a living, where we are going to spend part of our time living."

Miss Macphail said that mutual life insurance cost less than other types and that the state of Massachusetts had provided life insurance even more cheaply than mutual companies.

Dr. A. Dickinson, North York township, was the chairman. George Mitchell, M.P.P. for North York, said that "the winning of the war must come first," but that after the war "we look for something better."

"There will be opposition from those groups that in the past have had the better pickings," Mr. Mitchell said, warning of suggestions about putting men on the land and increasing agricultural production. Mr. Mitchell said that largely as a result of an increase in production in the western provinces, Canada had produced over seven million hogs last year. "My own feeling is that after the war we won't be able to sell that many hogs, let alone producing more."

"When I enlisted in 1914 I was under the impression that I was going overseas to win a war to end all wars," said Major A. H. Woods, C.C.F. federal candidate. "I believed that the government would take steps so that not only returning soldiers but all the people might live in peace and security. I returned in 1919 to find a synthetic program."

Major Woods recalled the depression years of the thirties, with "boys of 18, 19 and 20, when cut off relief, leaving home to ride the rails rather than sponge on the family."

"I believe that the Liberal party or the Conservative party, if they so that there would be no depression," said Major Woods. "They don't want to, because the people who pull the strings depend on the system of scarcity. This is a tremendously wealthy country yet we permit it to be exploited by a comparatively small group of people."

Major Woods said that the dominant government's rehabilitation policy was "negative one, a half- (Page 8, Col. 5)

MANITOBA GRADUATE APPOINTED PRINCIPAL

John W. Lockhart, of the senior high school staff of Forest Hill village, has been appointed principal of Newmarket high school at a salary of $3,100.

Mr. Lockhart graduated with his Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics and physics from the University of Manitoba in 1931. Subsequently he received an M.A. from the same university while on the staff as a demonstrator and lecturer in physics from 1931 to 1933.

He was on the staff of Merritt (Ont.) high school from 1935 to 1942, assistant principal for four years and acting principal until he resigned in December, 1942, to go to Forest Hill.

He was president of the Niagara District Schools Athletic Association for two years. He is married, a member of the United Church and while in Merritt a member of the Lions club. He holds physical training and manual training certificates. He will assume his new duties in September.

Chairman A. N. Belugin reported to the high school board at a meeting on Monday evening that the high school water bill had gone to $236 for a three-months period as the result of a leak which had flooded and damaged the gymnasium floor.

The consumption for the quarter was 125,000 cubic feet instead of the usual 28,000 cubic feet, Mr. Belugin said. The water had been leaking probably for two months, suggested Trustee W. J. Geer.

The board discussed obtaining a dictaphone, a comptometer and other office equipment from War Assets Disposal Ltd., at the conclusion of the war, for the commercial department. Members also discussed advertising the commercial department, finding jobs for the graduates and training of teachers to give vocational guidance.

Chairman Belugin said that vocational guidance deserved study. It was stated that East York Collegiate was sending three staff members to Harvard this summer to take a course in vocational guidance, and that McMaster University, Hamilton, is offering a summer course in vocational guidance.

HERO OF TWO WARS TELLS WHAT BONDS DO

Urging the purchase of Victory bonds, R.S.M. James Robert Shaw, M.M. (Somme, 1916), veteran of two wars, told a C.C.F. rally in Newmarket town hall on Friday evening how money helps to fight the war.

Wounded in Italy, R.S.M. Shaw is home in Weston on a month's leave. He went to France with the 48th Highlanders at the time of Dunkirk and fought through the Sicilian campaign. An exploding bomb injured his knee and he was sent to an African hospital.

"The Italians didn't want to fight," R.S.M. Shaw said. "After seeing their country, I don't wonder. They didn't have anything to fight for. There is a tremendous difference between our standard of living and theirs. Our boys are fighting to have something to come home to."

One of the many uses to which Victory bond money was put was for hospitals in Italy, staffed with plastic surgeons who perform miracle operations on wounded Canadians, R.S.M. Shaw said.

R.S.M. Shaw told of Canadians in the front line of Italy who "hadn't had their clothes off for two months but they weren't grousing." They also bought their share of Victory bonds, he said.

The chairman, Dr. E. A. Dickenson, North York township, expressed thanks to R.S.M. Shaw for coming to Newmarket.

Mail Follows Soldier Up Hill And Down Dale

"Both lots of cigarettes were dated last October and September, so you can see by that just how we are getting our mail down here," writes Pte. J. F. O'Halloran to Newmarket Veterans in a letter of appreciation dated April 23.

"But of course a lot of the fault is due to moving around so much, first Sicily, then Africa and now Italy, then to the front and back through the hospitals, so you see they travel for months until you stop long enough for them to catch up to you. That's why I say nothing could be any more welcome, because when they do catch up a fellow is pretty well out of them."

"Well, the winter is all over here now, and the weather is here again, but of course, the winter here is nothing like that at home. We get a bit of snow, mostly in the mountains. In the lowlands it's rain and mud up to your knees."

"It has really been surprising the number of Newmarket boys that I have met down here lately, Eric McCaffrey, Cliff Barker, Art Lee, Bob McElroy and several others."

"Hello again, and I sincerely hope this finds all the Vets. in good health," writes Lieut. Wes. Niles. "Again last week I received more cigarettes from your association. Cigarettes, as you all know, are a very necessary item to a soldier and I am no exception. I appreciate greatly your gift and wish I could express in stronger words my thanks."

"The weather here has been quite warm and sunny. The grass is green and the daffodils and bluebells are in full bloom. Quite a considerable change from a Canadian April."

North York Has Job To Do In Last Few Days Of Campaign

North York Victory Loan campaign chairman, Aubrey Davis, said last night: "As we go into the last three days of the sixth Victory loan, we will all be concerned that North York shall make its objective of $2,310,000.

"Five times before we have been called upon, and five times we have done the job assigned to us. I have every confidence that we can do it again, but if we do, it will be the result of extra effort on the part of every salesman, during these last few days, and a generous determination on the part of the public that North York shall do its full share.

"As of Wednesday we have $1,592,250 subscribed with $700,000 still to come. In my own town of Newmarket subscriptions are $240,300 against $335,000. Newmarket has a job to do.

"Where there is a will there is a way." Newmarket camp is showing us that. The officers and men at B.T.C. 23 have nearly doubled their objective and they are still working hard. They are not going to quit until the loan closes.

"They are in this war to the finish. They do not think of buying bonds as just a Victory loan campaign. It is a part of the war, so far as they are concerned, and they are putting their all into it.

"We all must be soldiers. We must all make our dollars fight."

FINDS FOUR N.H.S. GRADS AT HOSPITAL

"Your usual thoughtful reminder that there is still a home town arrived this week and of course it is extremely welcome," writes Capt. J. Gordon Cook in a letter of appreciation to the Newmarket Veterans Soldiers Comforts fund.

"Since I last wrote you we have had rather dramatic weather changes—instead of rain there is sunshine and instead of mud there is dust. The change is, of course, very much for the better, although I'd infinitely prefer a March gale in North York to anything Italy can offer.

"At present we are in a so-called 'resting stage,' which offers infinitely more opportunity to reflect on the detractions of army life but 'grousing' has always been considered a serviceman's privilege. The other day at a Canadian hospital I was fortunate in running into no less than three Newmarket collegiate grads.—Major George Dillane, Major Frank Mills and S.M. Grace Cowleson. From them I learned that Jack Luesby was also there, although I didn't see him.

"At present our athletic teams are able to get going and you will recall the intense rivalry that prevails between various units. I guess it must equal or surpass the Aurora-Newmarket squabbles of past years. Being a comparatively small group, we have some trouble in competing with regiments, despite the fact we have at least one divisional title under our belts. I'm afraid I'm not quite as young as I used to be."

"At present I am busy doing my share at the front and I regret I haven't time to write you a letter," writes Pte. Bob McElroy in a card of appreciation from Italy. "We are getting very good food and as much aleop as we need. The weather is very good, so there are few complaints."

Salesman "Bill" Bosworth won two fine prizes last week in the Victory loan campaign. Given by Chairman Aubrey Davis, they totalled $50. One was for the best showing of the week. The other was for the first salesman to reach his objective.

This week the Newmarket Veterans' soldiers' comforts fund is $55 richer. The boys overseas are both fighting and buying bonds, and Mr. Bosworth thought that he would show his appreciation by passing along his prize money to them.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1944

OFF IN THE STILLY NIGHT

Noise and rowdiness on Newmarket's Main St. between the hours of 11 p.m. and 1 a.m. seem to have achieved a new peak. There is a job for both town police and the military police. Those who cause the noise mean no harm. For the most part they are carefree youngsters, some in khaki, some in civvies, some in curls, who like to hear the sound of their own voices, either in prose or song, break the stillness of the night. They perhaps do not realize that there are a great many people living in the apartments over Main St. places of business.

Another disturber of the night hours is that car with the broken muffler. It seems to be everywhere. It sounds like a section of the Italian front. There should be "a law against it." Mufflers are obtainable for most makes and models of cars, and the lack of a muffler saves no gasoline.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Dr. Carl E. Hill, M.O.H. for North York township, has invited citizens of that township to visit the public health centre, now entering its second year, at Willowdale. Undoubtedly citizens of other York county municipalities would be welcome visitors too. This would seem to be an opportunity to obtain first-hand information on one of the topics of the day.

SWEEPING THE FIELDS

The name "buckrake" is coming across our horizon more and more frequently. The dominion department of agriculture explains that a buckrake is a kind of sweep with long, projecting teeth. It is usually attached to a tractor but may be attached to an automobile or truck chassis. The buckrake sweeps up the hay and carries it to the barn.

Apparently the buckrake can be home-made and a "three-lined" saving of labor, time and expense. Incidentally, Dr. E. S. Archibald, director of the dominion experimental farms service, says that the three-lined fork is the most expensive tool on the farm.

Newmarket and Aurora men will feel sad to think that farmers will no longer need them at haying time, but they can plan to put in a few extra nights "stooking" grain to make up for their loss—if buckrakes are to sweep the countryside and the hayfields.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

PREMIER KING'S MIRACLE

(Midland Free Press Herald)

Being prime minister of Canada is no easy job. The man who essays the task must be an adept at riding two horses at one and the same time, and often when they want to go in opposite directions.

The British people had better have a good look at Premier Mackenzie King while he is over there. He has had sufficient political skill to be retained at the head of Canada's government longer than any other Canadian living or dead. He is unique.

English-speaking Canadians have been impatient with Mr. King because he has been slow in taking action on problems whose solution seemed easy to us. We have even accused him of playing politics instead of getting on with the war. We have been particularly annoyed about his failure to act on that conscription plebiscite which was carried overwhelmingly in eight provinces out of nine. The maintenance of a huge army for home defence alone has been regarded as an expensive farce.

This last week we have had our eyes opened once more to the immensity of the prime minister's difficulties. On the very eve of the invasion and the greatest crisis of the whole war, the Quebec legislature voted 55 to four against the use of any conscripts for overseas service. Some members actually suggested that Canada should withdraw from the war now that the fear of invasion was over. The utter unwillingness of many of our French-Canadian fellow citizens to accept any responsibility whatever outside of Canada's shores makes us realize how great is the gulf fixed between our two major races in our world outlook.

If that vote and those speeches really represent Quebec's attitude towards the war then we must give credit to Mr. King for having achieved a miracle in carrying Canada into the war and sending hundreds of thousands of fully-equipped fighting men overseas. He has been dependent in a large measure on Quebec support, and yet he has led Canada in a war effort that has won the admiration of the world. This has not only taken skillful diplomacy but courage to a marked degree, for it has not been easy to hold his Quebec followers in line while the Bloc Populaire and other isolationist orators were busy undermining the war effort by misrepresenting its meaning to the Quebecois.

The first thing Mr. King did on his arrival in Scotland by plane was to assure the British people that Canada was in the war to the finish. Well said, Mr. King.

THE COMMON ROUND

By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

MONEY

We have it on the best authority that "the LOVE of money is the root of all evil," though it's often misquoted as "money is the root of all evil."

If money WERE the root of all evil, this poor war-torn world of ours would be a hell on earth, for never, in all the history of the world, have we heard so much about it, nor did any peoples before us have to try to visualize what billions upon billions meant. We think of our purses, maybe a little fatter than they used to be, but still capable of being counted in very modest sums of dollars and cents, and find that after that, our brains simply refuse to even imagine what billions are. But money, whether evil or good, yields a terrific power, and it can be used equally for good or evil. Make it a god, and like King Midas, though everything you touch turns to gold, all the lovelier things of life, even the smallest of them, are lost to you.

Many years ago we had a friend, a doctor—she had a brilliant student career, worked up an excellent practice and seemed destined for fine things. She also had money apart from her profession. But, as the years went on, she began to lose friends; she lived and moved and had her being, in terms of money—not for what she might do with it, but that she might hoard it. Her parents and brother died, and with more money, she grew worse; her beautiful home was allowed to go to ruin, her clothes, never replenished, were a disgrace, her friends left her because she did not want them, and she died alone, leaving a fortune in six figures to a university. The pitiful part to me was that NO one mourned her passing. As far as we knew she never used a dollar of her money or an hour of her profession to help someone who needed that help.

In the same town was a washerwoman, whom my mother employed for years. She was Irish and had a sense of humor and worked from morning till night to support a crippled son and a little grandchild. No one ever heard her complain though she lived from day to day on her meagre earnings. But—she had friends, and when she was sick and dying they rallied round and gave her every comfort and what was more, they mourned for her. We all felt that something decent and kindly had gone when she went.

I remember a man who got rich, through a fierce attention to the accumulation of wealth, saying to me, "I've found out one thing you can't buy." "And what," I asked, "is that?"

"Friends," said he, for he had lost most of his old ones and didn't trust the ones whom his wealth attracted.

And now the war is on and many people have more money than they ever had, but they are finding out that many things they had planned to buy if they had money enough, are unattainable. Maybe this is all to the good, for unless people are fools, they do not just throw money away. Therefore they must save it, invest in Victory bonds, or bank it.

I heard an interesting talk on Victory bonds the other day. Two women, who each possessed bonds, talking. One of them said that someone said to her, "after the war Canada will be so poor that these bonds won't be worth the paper they're printed on. What do you think?" she asked my other friend.

"I'm sure they're safe," answered lady No. 2. "Canada has vast resources, untouched as yet, some of them, and after the war trade will flow into our markets, so I consider I'm investing in two ways, help to our boys and in the future of Canada, and even," she went on, "if they aren't worth much, which I don't believe, what would anything we have, ourselves included, be worth if the Axis won?"

So, thinking about money in all its aspects, I concluded it can't buy friends, happiness, health or peace, but used rightly, it can GIVE happiness, bring security and prosperity to Canada and Canadians if invested in ways that will give the opportunity for well-paid work, for education, for opportunity for talent to express itself, to all.

Money is a talent, to be used or abused and as a nation, as investors or as individuals we shall rise or fall according to the use we make of it.

THEY MAKE SALES

Era and Express classifieds are increasingly useful because an increasing number of people use them. A Newmarket man said this week: "You have a good paper. I advertised a bicycle on Thursday. Sold it on Monday." An Aurora man advertised two sewing-machines for sale. He sold them both Thursday evening before the ink was dry on the paper. Everything advertised for sale is not necessarily sold, but 25 cents (minimum charge) is not very much to pay out to find if anybody wants what it is that you don't want.

The high school boys kicked against a picked 11 from the town at the fair grounds on Tuesday evening. The town footballers won 2-1.

The principal commodities on the market on Saturday were butter, eggs and potatoes. Butter dropped to 16 and 17 cents and eggs were firm at nine cents a dozen.

The new steps in front of the Ontario bank are a decided improvement. All the members of the public school board were present at a meeting on Tuesday evening. The principal's report shows an enrolment of 225 for April and an average attendance of 290.

Among the bills assented to by the lieutenant-governor on Saturday was "an act to reduce the area of the town of Newmarket." This does not take a foot of taxable land out of the corporation but has relation to the north town line, known as Huron St., from Cane's factory to the eastern boundary of the town. By its provisions, East Gwillimbury will be required to maintain one-third of the cost of keeping that portion of the street in repair.

What is to hinder the town council and the agricultural society from making some arrangement about planting shade trees around the fair grounds? It would make a great improvement in a few years.

God On Yonge St.

By R. R. McMAITH

"On the 30th day of the fourth month at 11 a.m." That was the announcement in the local paper and we arrived at the half yearly meeting at the Yonge St. meeting-house only a few minutes before the hour. A fair-sized group had arrived and were on the verandah (yes, the church has a verandah) greeting each other and shaking hands.

We were greeted immediately by Jesse Walton and his daughter, Elmer Starr and his wife, Chas. and Mrs. Lewis, and one or two other non-Friends. As they entered the building we modestly stood back and allowed most of the folk to enter before us.

It's a strange type of church building. It looks like a home. Faces south and has two entrances. There is also a partition across the centre. The day was when the women had their own place of meeting and the men had theirs. Today only the men's section is used. But the women still sit on the one row of pews (to the west) and the men occupy the pews to the east.

It was a strange feeling that came over one as we entered. For the first time in our lives we were attending a Quaker service! There was one recognized minister, Alice Stratton. Three lady elders sat facing the ladies and three men elders sat facing the men. A hush came over the place immediately and we seated ourselves as quietly as possible.

We sat there for about 15 minutes without a quiver even on any face. I didn't believe it possible in this day. And especially in this building. There is nothing in it to awe anyone except sentimentality. I have never responded much to that. The walls are plain boards and the ceiling and pews likewise. All hand-planned and the nails even were hand-made. Nevertheless, it is surely the plain House of God.

After 15 minutes solid silence Elder Starr arose and said: "It is the custom of Friends to meet in silence as we do at this time, to wait for the moving of the spirit of God. He may move the individual to lead in audible prayer, or offer advice or admonition." For another 15 minutes silence prevailed.

Then Friend Louise Rourke, editor of the Canadian Friend, from Toronto, gave a simple but delightful five-minute interpretation of the story of the afflicted waiting at the pool. Her telling seemed to deepen the hush. Another quoted a verse. Still another made reference to the work of the Holy Spirit among groups and in the life of the individual.

I was back home, by this time, in the old Methodist class-meeting or love feast. I noted this difference, however. None made reference, as we did, to the goodness of God as evidenced in our lives. Our testimony was always a personal one. Testifying to the grace of God in our own hearts. A man now/broke silence and said: "I wonder are we the remnant called back." Called back by God to confess the sins of our fathers and to accept the responsibilities of the future." It was just five minutes to twelve and two elders shook hands and the meeting closed.

Hardly an hour with God and His people. But what a period! No praying audibly; no hymn singing; no scripture reading but surely a literal interpretation of the admonition: "Wait on the Lord." That text remained with me all through the service.

Immediately the service closed Elma Starr announced the kettle would soon be boiling and all were invited to remain and lunch together. We remained and the social fellowship was divine. What did I

LIPE'S GREATEST PLEASURE according to the modern American writer, Burton Rascoe, is the unhurried reading of a good book. Probably one of the strongest proofs of the power literature holds over the minds of men has been demonstrated in these modern days when with superficial entertainment readily available book-reading has not lost but still gains in popularity. There are proportionately more people buying books today than ever before by recent United States statistics, more additions to home libraries, better lending library services. Make certain your town is book-conscious!

LIVING FUEL STOREHOUSE... do you know that, having unsuccessfully attempted by means of mirrors to trap the enormous flow of heat power from the sun, scientists are now planning to store these heat units in growing plants, crops being especially susceptible to solar heat units. Chemists, now negotiating to plant huge tropical areas with fast-growing "fuel crops," estimate an efficient handling will store the sun's heat at the rate of seven horsepower per acre during the growing season. Fuel recovered will first be alcohol later petroleum and gasoline.

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Era and Express: Your editorial, "A distinguished Visitor," pleased me very much, not merely because I agree that Miss Macphail will go down in history as a great woman who has rendered a tremendous service to the Canadian people, but because I believe people should take a different attitude toward their public servants and politics in general.

In the democratic way of life politics are the medium through which we achieve everything. Undoubtedly, everyone who offers his services to the public has some exceptional good qualities. Consequently, I believe it is a mark of better-class journalism to recognize such qualities and bring them to the attention of the public. Likewise, in a true democracy we have the privilege of criticizing our public servants, which is also good and sometimes necessary. Nevertheless, I believe this privilege is being abused somewhat at present and thus capable people are reluctant to enter public life.

Apart from her politics altogether, it was indeed refreshing last Friday to hear Miss Macphail so cheerfully declare her faith in the Canadian people. It is that faith she holds in the people that really makes her great. However, it is just as refreshing to see The Era and Express trying to educate its readers to realize their political responsibilities. If the people fail to do this we might deteriorate to a political system in which the leaders will do all the thinking for us and the people are simply ersatz!

THANK YOU CANADA ... but there's still a WAR JOB to do!

CANADA NEEDS 20,000 TONS OF WASTE PAPER EVERY MONTH

WHAT IS WANTED: You can remedy this critical paper shortage by saving every scrap of critical paper, namely: wrapping paper—store bags—cardboard—cartons—corrugated board—old magazines and books—envelopes and letters—newspapers. These represent the raw material for making vitally needed paper containers.

HOW TO DO IT: Tie securely in separate bundles. (The little time you take will save thousands of man hours.) Then dispose of it through your local Voluntary Salvage Committee or other War Voluntary Organization, or sell it through any known trade channels, or peddle it or others. The important thing is to get your Waste Paper moving to the mills.

TWENTY-THREE LAST WEEK

Newmarket camp is over the top! The quota of $53,000 has been reached in one week of the campaign. At the time of going to press (we should more accurately say going to the typewriter) we have $53,000. Lieut. Fred. White's moustache is just bristling with pride at this achievement. Fred has put himself on record that we're going to get $50,000 before we're through, or should we say, before he's through. There's no doubt about it. He's a go-getter when it comes to that matter. He's got taking ways, and he enthralls all others with the same spirit also.

On Tuesday, as a pre-show attraction and in honor of the lads who upheld the colors of Newmarket in the realm of boxing, each man on the boxing team was introduced to the audience by the acting O.C. Major A. Adams, who gave a resume of their life and achievements in boxing. The lads received a big hand for their efforts for No. 23. The camp may well be pleased with their record. Credit is due to L.-Cpl. Mendelson, who gave so much of his time to the training and developing of many of these lads. He made some fine "discoveries" among them.

In line with the expressed wish of Col. Young that the new men of the camp be enabled to see their show the Black Berets came on Tuesday for a return engagement. There was a large crowd of soldiers and their civilian friends to witness the performance. The show was under the direction of Lieut. H. W. Carter-Page, sometimes of Walt Disney's studio, Hollywood. He had as his able assistant in the realm of music Lieut. J. F. Johnstone, who from his position of pianist ably led the fine orchestra. It was like coming home to Lieut. Johnstone, as he had been a member of this camp before he gained his commission. Members of the Citizen-Soldier club remember how he used to tickle the ivories of the piano at the club in town.

As in the last performance the two outstanding items were "Barack-Room Lettuce" and "C.W.A.C. Cutsies." In the barracks-room scene, Lieut. Johnstone, who from his position of pianist ably led the fine orchestra. It was like coming home to Lieut. Johnstone, as he had been a member of this camp before he gained his commission. Members of the Citizen-Soldier club remember how he used to tickle the ivories of the piano at the club in town.

The C.W.A.C. Cutsies were composed of Leek, Osborne, Wilson and Silverburg. Wilson, the tall one, caught the eyes of most, though Silverburg tried to steal the show. These female impersonators were later replaced by a hilarious scene entitled "Mercy Nurse" when their ministering abilities were put to the supreme test. Words for this were composed by the producer director, Lieut. Carter-Page. Lieut. Johnstone had some part in the composing of the music.

Clever animal imitations were given by Sgt. Cawley. The whole show was well received. Major Adams thanked them for coming to us again and expressed the hope that they might come again soon.

A further note concerning the entertainment of the cast and orchestra members will be found in the C.W.A.C. flashes written by L.-Cpl. Mary McKirwin: "Well, girls, last week certainly proved to be a busy time for us, between duty and entertainment, not to mention route marches and parades four mornings out of five weekly.

To begin with, on Monday all the C.O.'s of the 23 C.W.A.C. attended a mock district court martial trial in Toronto. The president was none other than Lieut.-Col. Locke, the members being Lieut. Laidlaw and Lieut. Gilmour, both of the C.W.A.C. Of particular interest to this camp was the accused, "Daisy Mae Scragg," none other than Lieut. Boyd, some time our own officer. She was on trial for being A.W.L. Daisy Mae Scragg was from Skunk Hollow and went A.W.L. to make a little money. Perhaps I should say she was going to try to marry him, but some fiend had her hands on him and Little Abner didn't know if he was coming or going, according to the story of Daisy Mae. The trial lasted for three hours but there was a lot of good sense and humor about the whole thing. Definite instruction as to procedure was given and the appreciation of the justice meted out in a D.C.M. was received by all.

"Tuesday evening the 'Black Berets' from Borden paid a visit to the camp to entertain the troops. The C.W.A.C. took over after the show by entertaining them in our C.W.A.C. recreation hut. The boys had a marvellous time and we hope to see them again soon. Until then, best of luck, Berets!"

On Thursday the girls lined up in front of the hut to parade downtown to the pipe band. Lieut. Hannacher took inspection, accompanied by Sgt. ("Shorty") Collins. Afterwards M'am said we looked pretty smart. We could have told her that before she had the inspection, because we thought we did too. We paraded all round town, and were the eye of every passerby. Several of the town folk remarked on how smart we looked, and also some of the boys from the camp who at that time were downtown. The parade was for the Victory loan drive.

"Friday evening 'D' squadron N.C.O.'s and officers held a party at the Soldiers' club downtown. Several of the C.W.A.C. were present. From what we hear a good time was had by all. But were they exclusive? I'll say! I have some sad news to relate in this issue. It concerns little 'Murphy.' He's gone where the good bunnies go. He died Friday night and this evening we are going to bury him with full military honors. You see he was a regimental quartermaster-sergeant. We had him for only a short time and he all learned to love him. His passing will be a sad loss for us girls.

"We want to congratulate L.-Cpl. Louie Marinelli and L.-Cpl. Helen Osborne on their engagement, which was announced Friday at noon. We hope they both will be very happy!"

for some of the personnel of camp lately. Tpr. Hugh Pickering took to himself a bride in the person of Irene Brownlie. They were married at Windsor.

Hamilton was chosen for the wedding of Tpr. Stephen Witt, who married Ida Eileen Keller. Lieut. Patrick E. Corrigan was married to Irene Agnes McNeill at Toronto on April 15. Congratulations to you all.

And then, three important little people arrived to make glad the hearts of three men of the camp. On March 21 Kenneth Albert, son of Tpr. and Mrs. Kenneth White, arrived at their home at Halifax. And at Newmarket Patricia Ileana was born to Pte. and Mrs. Harold Gilkes on the 28th of March. Tpr. and Mrs. Stanley Lalonde are rejoicing in the birth of Joyce Mary Elizabeth born on March 8 at Cornwall. Congratulations to you all.

Another ribbon adorns the breast of Major W. H. Swazey of the Lincoln and Welland regiment. In recent orders it is shown that the Canadian Efficiency Decoration (E.D.) has been awarded him. Congratulations, Major!

At dismissal parade on Monday afternoon we heard an unusual speech. Major Ken. White of the 5th Highlanders, lately from England and on from the campaigns in Sicily and Italy, spoke from the heart and from the shoulder and made a deep impression on us. We felt he was speaking straight, telling truths, truths which went down deep. His speech was all too short, but so effective that he was applauded and brought back to the microphone like an actor on the stage called back for a curtain-call.

His relation of the response of a certain group in Italy under fire of the enemy in over-subscribing their 5th Victory loan quota will long remain in our minds.

The officers at dinner that evening had a further opportunity of hearing him. He assured us that we had a tough enemy to fight, but we also had toughness on our side and weapons superior to our enemy, so that with determination the end is assured.

Following dinner on Monday evening the officers gathered in the ante-room of the mess for a second demonstration of discussion group methods. This time Leonard Harman, general secretary of the United Farmers Co-operative Co., serving Ontario, was the leader. He brought his experience as a farmer and as an organizer to lead a discussion on farm problems and suggested solutions. He illustrated a different method of discussion group procedure by breaking up the assembled officers into five small groups. Each group chose a leader and a secretary. These smaller groups then discussed two questions and made their report to the meeting as a whole.

The exchange of ideas was found to be quite interesting. The method of procedure was quite novel to many of the officers. The purpose of the demonstration was to show another method of group discussion that can be used with the men in the troops in ABCA and Canadian affairs classes of the curriculum.

SERVING AURORA AND DISTRICT

Chaplain Expects Great Changes Will Follow War

Large crowds heard Capt. the Rev. Roy Essex of the Hastings and Prince Edward regiment at Aurora United church and Aurora Baptist church on Sunday. Capt. Essex was pastor of Aurora Baptist church for some years, leaving Aurora in 1930. He served in Britain, north Africa, Sicily and Italy, having been at Cassino and Campobasso, and landed in Sicily with the first Canadian troops. Following the evening service he gave a showing at Aurora Baptist church of pictures taken overseas on microfilm, which were unusual for their beauty and subjects.

At Aurora United church he preached on, "Lessons I Have Learned from Army Life." These were: first, the transforming power of a new idea; secondly, that it is more important to be than to do, third, the essential need in each one's life for a real anchor, and fourth, that understanding and intelligent sympathy are needed to prevent good deeds being spoiled. "I believe every soldier has found the need for a real anchor for mind, body and soul," declared Capt. Essex. "Great changes will arise from the war, with the great change in environment for most. The value of eternal things and the need to keep abreast with worthwhile things come to those who face danger."

While the Italians were making the United Nations' forces welcome, he felt it might have been otherwise. "They had no heart in the fight and want to be on the side of the winners. We faced little opposition until we met the German troops and we must remember that the Germans have their crack divisions in Italy. Their best troops are facing us."

Work To Be Done Seen By New Lions Club President

Aurora Lions club had its "charter night" in Trinity parish hall on Tuesday evening.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to welcome the Lions club into the town of Aurora," said Mayor Ross Linton. "I thank Richmond Hill for sponsoring the club. I believe that a lot more could be done between the various towns in Canada if they were a little more co-operative."

Mayor Linton thought that boys' and girls' work should be an outstanding activity of the new club. "There is a big problem here as in every other community," he said. "We have organizations for boys and girls but every organization needs strong backing."

He mentioned that Leonard Simmons, a member of the club, was already sponsoring baseball for the boys of the town, and suggested that the club lend its support.

"War services should be each club's major activity at this time," said Robert D. Little, Richmond Hill, deputy district governor for Lions zone seven, in which the Aurora club is grouped.

"A Lions club puts emphasis on a man's real worth, on his future rather than his past," said District Governor Ernest Houghton, Toronto. "A Lions club believes in community life. It believes in citizens going to the polls to vote. Lionism is statesmanship without the tarnish of politics. Lionism promotes a study of dominion, provincial and municipal affairs."

"The more we can serve our neighbors and our fellows the more worth-while our lives will be," said the new club's president, Frank Underhill. "I believe that of late years people have had less consideration for their neighbors. There seems to be greater greed, greater desire for power. There is an illustration of that in Europe."

AURORA ATHLETE IS NOW PRESUMED DEAD

He is an accomplished pianist, violinist and accordionist and has played with the Aurora Haybales, the Aurora Mountaineers and Al La Salle's orchestra, the latter two groups being under his direction.

At Wingham Mr. Profit will be heard three mornings each week. Three nights a week he will play with the Ranch Boys, who specialize in western melodies. He will also play with the three dance bands who broadcast from the station.

The death occurred in Christie St. hospital, Toronto, on Tuesday last week of George T. Neiss, former Aurora resident. Mr. Neiss was in his 63rd year and was born in Aurora, his parents residing where Fred Morris' butcher shop now stands.

He was educated in Aurora and was for many years employed in the livery stable business with the late Albert Machell on Wellington St. He enlisted with the 12th battalion, later serving with the 122nd and 2nd C.R.T. overseas for three years.

On his return from overseas he resided in Aurora for some years before accepting employment in Toronto. He is survived by his widow, the former Frances Trickey of Toronto. Interment was in the Veterans' plot, Prospect cemetery, Toronto, on Friday.

Whitchurch, Aurora Have Uphill Road To Victory Pennant

Aurora had reached $110,600 by Tuesday night in the sixth Victory loan campaign. There were four days left to reach the $200,000 total.

King township had $196,200 of an objective of $290,000. Whitchurch township had $84,550 of a total of $160,000.

In Aurora the leading salesman was Frank R. Underhill, with $40,450 from 28 sales. His objective is $70,000 and 70 sales. R. T. Caldwell and W. L. Millgate, with $13,500 and $11,450, and the banks, with $17,500, made up the rest of the Aurora total.

Baseball School Opens, Youngsters Get A Break

Citizens who journeyed to the Aurora town park on Monday night must have rubbed their eyes with amazement as they saw over 40 Aurora youngsters learning the rudiments of hardball under the direction of former hardballers Leonard Simmons, Bill Holloway and Charlie Milne.

The lads ranged in age from 12 to nearly 18, but it is the younger boys who are being especially tutored. The smaller boys went to one part of the park and two teams were chosen for a game, with substitutes going in frequently so that every kid got a chance to display his wares.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the gang will be in action again, and don't think the kids aren't happy about it all. Every Monday night now is kids' baseball night at the park, and alternate Wednesdays or Fridays too. Aurora Ordnance Depot soccer players and girl softballers use the park regularly on Tuesdays and alternate with the kids on the Wednesdays and Fridays.

The diamond has been put in first-class shape, and, after a conference between Ordnance, town and juvenile baseball officials, the plan originally placed before the town council of changing the diamond around is likely to be abandoned, since the backstop is firmly imbedded in its present position. Soccer practices will be held crosswise on the field, while games will be played lengthwise. A diamond is being readied in the southwest corner for softball.

With a grant of $25 from the municipality, those in charge of the boys have some funds, but to handle so many youngsters they will need more and an appeal is being made to the Aurora board of trade. It is thought that there must be much baseball equipment lying dormant in town which could be put to good use. Ernest Eveleigh, superintendent of the Sisman Shoe Co., found three new balls last week and gave them to Mr. Simmons. Those who can give equipment are urged to let those in charge know.

Until a league is formed the kids will play against each other, but Newmarket and Richmond Hill will be opponents later in the season. So possibly will be lads from Stouffville, Unionville and Markham, all once baseball strongholds.

Co-operation of adults is now needed and the example set by the boys at the Aurora Ordnance Depot, who agreed to the schedule drafted for the use of the park, shows what can be done.

Science Master Takes Thorold Principalship

Fred. W. Harvie, science master at Aurora high school, has accepted the principalship of Thorold high school and will leave Aurora at the end of the term. Mr. Harvie came to Aurora two years ago from Coniston, Ont., to replace Major N. F. Johnson, on leave of absence.

Mr. Harvie was secretary of the Aurora Liberal Association, a member of the board of trade, the Boy Scout group committee and a corporal with C Coy., 2nd battalion, Queen's York Rangers. He was in charge of the school cadets.

JOINS R.C.A.F.

Gib. Smith, prominent Aurora high school student and leader of Gib. Smith's high school orchestra, has enlisted in the R.C.A.F. He is a son of Ernest Smith, manager of the Imperial Bank at Schomberg. A brother, Pilot-Officer Bruce Smith, is serving overseas. He was home a few months ago.

SPRAINS ANKLE

Gar. Doolittle, Aurora high school student, fell and sprained his ankle on Thursday while playing baseball.

WILL INSPECT CADETS

The annual Aurora public school cadet inspection will be held in the town park on Friday at 2 p.m.

There has been an average attendance at the public schools of 348 for the month of April. The enrolment is 352.

CADET INSTRUCTOR HONORED AT A.H.S.

F. W. Harvie, who leaves Aurora high school at the end of the present term to become principal of Thorold high school, was honored by the boys' and girls' cadet corps on Tuesday.

Mr. Harvie was for 14 years principal of Coniston high school, and has been a member of the Aurora high school staff for two years.

Three members of the cadet corps have just joined the services, Douglas Clarke, navy, Gibson Smith, R.C.A.F., and Douglas Fisher, R.C.A.F.

Roland Hill Ordained By Archbishop Owen

Roland Hill, former Aurora boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hill, Wellington St., now Anglican rector at the parishes of Agincourt, Wexford and L'Amoureux, was ordained to the priesthood in the Church of England at St. James cathedral, Toronto, on Sunday morning by Archbishop Derwyn T. Owen. His parents as well as several other Aurorians were present for the occasion.

PLAY AT KING

DOWN THE CENTRE

Douglas Carr, erstwhile forward for King City hockeyists in the Aurora town league for two years, and last year with one of the teams in the Richmond Hill circuit, has joined the Canadian navy and is stationed at H.M.C.S. York, Toronto. Carr caught softball with Richmond Hill in the North York league last year, too, understanding Charlie Case. This year he is slated as first-string catcher for Navy in the Beaches league.

Russell Burns of Markham, who did some mushball hurling in that vicinity as well as winning fame as one of Ontario's best young horse-shoe tossers, is still with the navy in Toronto and will again toe the rubber for Navy along with Hilary Lang and Livingstone, to give a North York atmosphere to the team. Lang, one of Ontario's top ranking hurlers, is no stranger to North York either, having been imported on more than one occasion to pitch at tournaments at Laskey, Mount Albert, Uxbridge, etc.

Mount Albert citizens are to be congratulated on their decision to carry on the usual field day and jamboree on June 3.

We notice that one of the Mount's native sons, Howard Morton, has received another well-deserved promotion and is now Sgt. Major Morton. Howard for some years was one of the key men in softball as well as running boxing shows and dances in the village, and when he moved to Aurora took over the presidency of the Aurora junior hockey club.

Tod Sloan is a name that those who follow the fortunes of the gee-gees will remember as one of the greatest ever to pilot a horse in a race, either in the U.S. or in England. Set down for rough riding by the stewards for some months, Sloan once enforced holiday while on himself some dough at the tracks. He figured he knew the owners, the jockeys, the horses and the tracks, and if anybody was likely to make a killing it was himself. Well, Tod went to the track day after day, and laid outfit. Previously he was with New Haven and Washington. "Pep" Kelly is also on Shore's reserve list, but unlikely to return to the United States again.

Don Wilson, the Bradford boy now dropping bombs on Jerry overseas, is listed on the contingent reserve strength of the Hershey team.

Bernie McCarthy, ex-Markham and Unionville junior, now in the navy at Hamilton, is listed with Indianapolis, along with Enlo Seliszi, the former Milton junior, last year with Galt juniors.

Glen Brydson, who played fine hockey for T. & S. wing in the district intermediate group last winter, is shown as the property of Pittsburgh Hornets, along with Normie Mann, ex-toast of Newmarket Main St., now wearing navy blue.

Lorne West, big Bradford boy, who was starring in lacrosse a few years back as "Paul," is an R.C.A.F. pilot-officer overseas and in letters to friends back home tells of being in on several of the big "shows" against Berlin, and of the damage done by fires. Previous to enlisting he was a highway traffic officer.

Fred Schelke was awarded a plaque by the Jockeys' Association last week for being the owner of Canada's leading stakes winner, Shepperton. The Gormley farmer was the leading trainer in Canada last winter, saddling more winners than anyone else. They weren't all from his own stable, however, for Schelke conditions other horses on his farm besides his own.

Bill McDonald, reeve of New Toronto and ex-warden of York, sometimes called the kingmaker of York county council, was also awarded a plaque by the riders for his horse, Tulachmore, who was the biggest money winner on the Canadian turf in 1943. Mr. McDonald has been largely responsible for seeing that the jocks get a square deal from the various owners.

Congress baseball for Newmarket camp and other army and R.C.A.F. centres still hangs in the balance as the league awaits word whether or not officials at Ottawa will allow them to compete in leagues with civilian teams. We see no reason why this should not be the case and our opinion is that permission will be granted. The Congress tournament is largely centred in Ontario although Lachine R.C.A.F. and Halifax navy came to the national tournament last year.

In hockey the ruling was that the military and R.C.A.F. teams could not compete against the civilians but hockey was able to stand on its own feet without the services. Baseball can hardly do that. Meanwhile military clubs are readying themselves for the season.

Herb Burchall, former wing-man for Sutton Greenshirts, in the early thirties, when he wore a golden rugby helmet in action, has probably covered more territory than any man in the Canadian navy. The Uxbridge boy, now a lieutenant-commander, has travelled over 250,000 miles with the royal navy on every front as a radar officer. Herb, now in Canada, says Mount Vesuvius erupt, met General Bernard Montgomery, knows Russia well and has seen Italian sailors become efficient allies under the direction of British sailors.

When he enlisted he was a high school teacher at Earl Haig C.I. at Willowdale. He says, "Radar is winning the war." His work, as might be expected, is highly secret. Team-mates on active service include Harry ("Whammy") Milroy, Jack Crozier, Leon Smith, the late Flying Officer Harry Treloar and Lloyd.

Lloyd Finkelman, who played for Midland in the O.I.A. intermediate group against Sutton Greenshirts a few years ago, after being with Cleveland Barons, and then was a team-mate of Barrie's Harry Couse, when "Haltbreadth Harry" pitched Engineers to a Borden softball title, will play first-base for the army Shamrocks in the Beaches softball league. Understand the Toronto army team was interested in securing the veteran Charlie Ekeby and Johnny Callanan, both counted upon heavily by Newmarket camp this year. Both boys are category men. It was no soap, however. Aside from their athletic endeavours, both are top-flight instructors.

George Stockwell will be recalled by canal-town fans from the halcyon days of Newmarket hockey. Stockwell, an Englishman, was brought to Newmarket as a trainer by Bill Hancock, and with the old maestro of the local team not feeling too good at times he occasionally handled the team. George didn't last in Newmarket but did a good job while he was there. Afterwards he was trainer for the famous Toronto Argonauts football team, coached a few hockey teams, and then went on the athletic staff at Upper Canada College, coming to Aurora with the teams to play against St. Andrew's College.

He enlisted with the R.C.A.M.C. early in the present conflict, went overseas and then became of a physical ailment was returned to Canada. He is now stationed at Camp Borden military hospital.

Les Beazer has certainly got things humming at the Aurora Golf club. The membership is away up from last year, the greens and fairways are in good shape, and the clubhouse and entertainment of the host. New trophies have been secured and with President Frank Burner in the van the club appears headed for a good season. The ladies' section has a nice membership too, and some fine players are in prospect. May 24 will see the first tournament of the year.

Already the old reliable Billy Brooks is touring the course at slightly over 75, with Dr. G. W. Williams, Herman Gray and the others not far behind. Larry Motynoux is said to be driving the pill plenty far from the tee. "Whitney" Jones and a havy of younger players are just about ready to threaten the supremacy of the older fellows too.

Tommy Hitchcock, the late polo star, left a sporting motto which might well be taken to heart by sportsmen everywhere. Said Hitchcock: "When you lose act as though you loved it. When you win act as if you were used to it."

Railway Man Loses Hands In War But Signs Up For Victory Bond

"ALL OUT FOR VICTORY" said Raoul Audet demobilized as Major in the Canadian Active Army to re-establish himself in civil life as station agent at Levis, Que. for the Canadian National Railways with whom he had been employed as relieving agent prior to joining the Chaudiere Regiment in September, 1939.

While serving overseas Major Audet lost both hands in a grenade explosion. After hospitalization he adapted himself to the use of devices performing many manual functions and became so adept as to resume his use of a telegraph key.

In the photograph Major Audet (right) is seen with J. A. Trudel, Canadian National superintendent of the Levis division, signing for a bond of the Sixth Victory Loan issue. Major Audet, with personal experience and knowledge of what war means, declared "We must put Victory First."

CORN GROWERS OF YORK COUNTY

Corn borer clean-up regulations are in force in this county in 1944. It is particularly important that ALL corn growers completely dispose of their corn refuse either by ploughing under or by burning, before May 20, 1944. The clean-up is particularly important this year since a considerable increase of corn borer occurred in 1943.

SERVING CANADA in WAR and PEACE

[The 63rd Annual Meeting of Canadian Pacific Shareholders was held in Montreal on May 3rd, 1944.]

Remember how pleasant it used to be to travel on Canadian Pacific trains and ships . . . to stay at Canadian Pacific hotels and resorts?

That was before Hitler unleashed his mad ambitions. It's different now. It has to be—for the World's Greatest Travel System has a big war job to do—and is doing it with characteristic efficiency.

When that job is done—and peace returns—Canadian Pacific will be ready to serve you as before . . . and even more completely.

Already plans are being made for the construction of new, improved locomotives and coaches . . . sleeping cars . . . parlor cars . . . diners; for the improvement of roadbed and tracks; for the renovation of stations and hotels; for the building of a new fleet of ocean vessels to replace those lost in war service.

This post-war program means much more than the mere restoration of pre-war travel facilities. It means the introduction of travel on a new scale of comfort, convenience and speed!

And more than that. It means a substantial amount of post-war employment and prosperity all over the Dominion, because the program itself will provide years of steady work at good wages for tens of thousands of Canadians.

This is one way in which Canadian Pacific is planning to meet the challenge of peace—while continuing to do a vital war job at home and abroad.

Canadian Pacific

THE WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM

CANADIAN PACIFIC PRODUCT OF FREE ENTERPRISE

LOYALLY AND EFFICIENTLY serving Canada for 63 years, the Canadian Pacific exemplifies the initiative and resource of free Canadian enterprise. The Dominion's first transcontinental railway, it was pushed to completion by a group of farseeing citizens who backed their faith in Canada's future with their personal fortunes. Thus, Canadian Pacific has played a major role in the development of the Dominion.

THE WARTIME ACTIVITIES of Canadian Pacific have been indispensable to Canada's contribution to victory. Rail freight traffic has doubled and passenger traffic has increased threefold compared with peacetime.

Canadian Pacific's ocean fleets on the Atlantic and the Pacific have been at the service of the United Nations since the outbreak of the war.

From Canadian Pacific shops have come tanks, guns and other munitions of war to a total value of $125,000,000. Today approximately 10,000 Canadian Pacific employees are serving in the Armed Forces.

CANADIAN PACIFIC is rightly proud of these records, made possible by the free association of three important groups, each contributing vitally to mutual Canadian interests:

FIS PATRONS—throughout Canada and many other parts of the world.

FIS EMPLOYEES—totalling over 75,000, whose wages and working conditions set a high standard for Canadian labor.

FIS SECURITY AND STOCKHOLDERS—numbering more than 200,000, who have risked their savings as evidence of their faith in the Canadian system of free enterprise.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY

Howard Willoughby Had Served Township Well

North Gwillimbury township council met at Belhaven on Monday, May 1. It was with deep regret that the council heard the news of the death of Howard Willoughby, who had acted for so many years as assessor of the township. He was very familiar with the development of the summer resort area and had an extensive knowledge of the numerous parcels of property it included. His knowledge combined with his sound judgment made him a capable and efficient assessor.

The councillors received copies of the auditor's report for 1943 and the clerk was instructed to have a number of copies printed for distribution. David Dunkelmann was present and wanted some action from the council regarding disposal of water which he said was damaging his property. The council agreed to meet him and inspect the water course following the council meeting.

The clerk, Fred Peel, was instructed to advertise for tenders for garbage collection and May 15 was set as the date for a special meeting to award contracts and deal with some other business. DANGEROUS DRIVING BRINGS COURT FINE

Being intoxicated in a public place and illegally having liquor on his person brought two fines of $10 and costs to a Beeton man in magistrate's court at Newmarket on Tuesday. The alternative was a month in jail.

Chief Constable Fisher Dunham, Aurora, stated that at 7.30 p.m. on May 3 he had received a phone call from a bus driver who complained of the accused being on the bus in an intoxicated condition.

When he arrived he found that the accused had left the bus and was walking north on the highway. Upon searching him, the officer said, he found a partly consumed bottle of whiskey.

Found guilty on a charge of dangerous driving in North Gwillimbury on April 14, William Thompson, Quebec, was fined $25 and costs or 30 days. Mr. Thompson pleaded not guilty to the charge.

According to Lloyd Hollinger, Uxbridge, on the day in question he had been driving north on the town line near Sutton when, on crossing a bridge, the defendant's car, coming in the opposite direction, side-swiped his car, causing considerable damage to the tires, running-board and fender.

Questioned by Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong, the witness stated that Mr. Thompson was driving on the wrong side of the road and was travelling at approximately 30 miles an hour.

Cecil Harrison, Mount Albert, a passenger in the Hollinger car, told his worship that he could see by the way the defendant was driving that there was going to be a collision.

"What condition was he in?" asked his worship.

"He had been drinking. I could tell by the smell of his breath," stated the witness.

County Constable William Hill stated that he arrived at the scene at about 8.40 p.m. and found both cars considerably damaged on their left sides. Upon examining marks on the road he found that the defendant's car had been on the wrong side of the road.

"Did you see Mr. Thompson?" inquired the crown.

"Yes, he was unsteady on his feet, he had been drinking," replied the officer.

"There will be a conviction," Magistrate Woodliffe told Mr. Thompson. "That is no way to be driving."

A fine of $5 and costs was imposed on Roy L. Simpson, Toronto, when his worship found guilty of failing to turn out on Yonge St. According to Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson, when he arrived at the scene of an accident a mile and a half south of Bradford on April 16, he found that the accused's car had been involved in the collision. Marks on the pavement indicated that the defendant had been driving in the centre of the road and failed to move over when approaching a car coming in the opposite direction. The officer stated that a more serious charge would have been laid against the defendant had witnesses, who were soldiers, been available to appear in court.

Fifteen dollars and costs or ten days was the fine imposed on Charles Bunn, Newmarket, whom his worship found guilty of travelling at 45 miles an hour in Georgian township on May 1. The defendant denied that he had been exceeding the speed limit, saying that there was a governor on his truck. He also accused the officer of hiding behind a bush when clocking his speed.

Constable George Foster of Georgian township denied that he was hidden from view at the time and stated that he was in uniform, standing beside his car. He stated that when he stopped Mr. Bunn, the latter told him that the governor on his truck would not allow him to exceed 45 miles an hour.

"That's the speed with which he is charged," commented his worship. "He should not have been going that fast."

On a second charge, failing to have a commercial vehicle operator's permit, Mr. Bunn was fined $10 and costs or ten days.

Constable Foster told his worship that when he asked the defendant for his permit, the latter said curtly that he didn't own the truck.

In his defence Mr. Bunn explained that he made deliveries for a firm in Toronto. He was accustomed to keep his permit in the front of the cab. On the day in question a different truck from the one he always drove was sent up to him from the city. He believed he was not hung up in the cab. He later found it in the glove compartment.

"What were you trying to do, be nasty?" asked his worship. "Wasn't that the most logical place to look for the license? How long have you been driving?"

The defendant said that he had been driving for 20 years.

"You've been driving long enough to know that you must have your license handy to show to the officer."

Allan G. Cook, Orillia, was fined $20 and costs for travelling at 55 miles an hour on Yonge St. Constable Ferguson laid the charge.

George Courtney, R. R. 1, Schomberg, was fined $10 and costs for failing to have an operator's license and Audrey Clarke, Bolton, was fined $10 and costs for having two cars on her road.

These two charges were laid by County Constable Ronald Watt, Herman Hunting, Tottenham, was fined $1 and costs for illegal parking in Newmarket. Constable Kenneth Mount laid the charge.

Golf

Aurora Golf club is going places under the direction of Les. Beazer. The club-house is resplendent in a new coat of paint, inside and out. Fairways and greens are neatly trimmed.

Forty members attended opening ceremonies and a dinner at the club-house last week. They heard plans for the season.

Arthur Peppiatt and Herb. Cain were among Newmarket golfers on Sunday. They didn't touch the performance of H. E. Gilroy, who produced a birdie and a 39 count on a 35-par course.
